

F

129

G45549

STALEY'S

OF

VIEWS

COREY ISLAND

Class F129

Book C75879

STALEY'S VIEWS
OF CONEY ISLAND

COPYRIGHT, 1908, BY
CHARLES FRANCIS PRESS

PUBLISHED BY
CHARLES FRANCIS PRESS

30 W. 13TH STREET, NEW YORK

At all news stands, or sent postpaid on receipt of Thirty-five cents in stamps

1125
C1284

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS
Two Copies Received
AUG 6 1908
COPYRIGHT LIBRARY
Aug 6 1908
CLASS A XXC. N.J.
213696
COPY B.

21

Introduction

IN these pages we have reproduced the most notable scenes of Coney Island, the nation's playground.

These pictures have been carefully made at great expense especially for this publication and are not to be found elsewhere. They form the most notable pictorial representation of Coney's wonders.

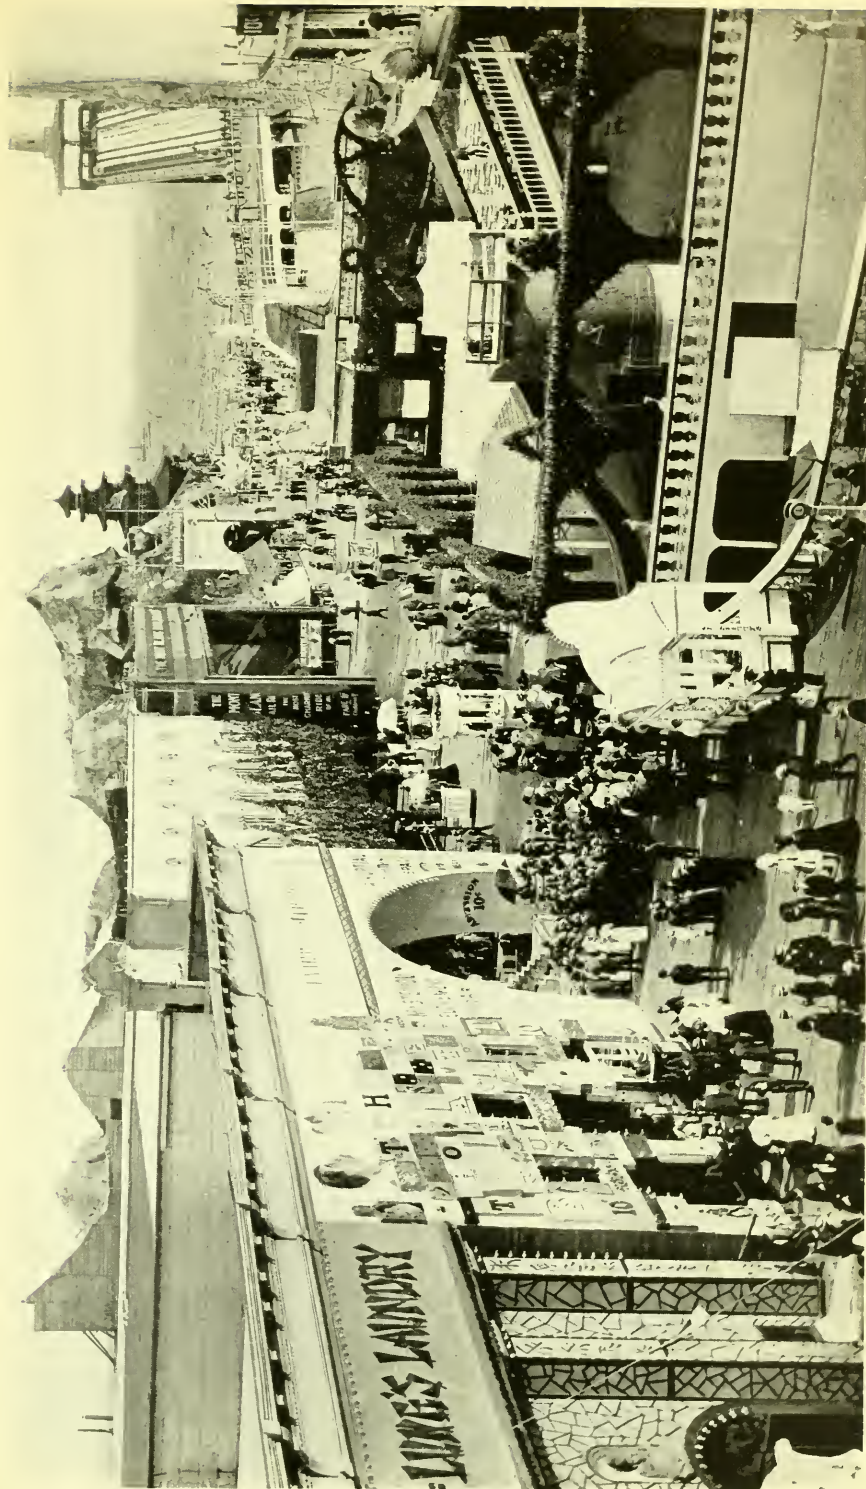

The scenes shift with wonderful rapidity on this, the most famous Island in the world and what you see this year you may never see again. Refresh, then, the memories of the future with these pictures of the present. Turn the pages in the years to come and remember the sights you have seen and the pleasures you have had.

Send a copy to your friends at home and abroad. Let them see for themselves the marvels, the fascinations of Coney Island, so that they too may have the wander-lust and make the trip to Coney.

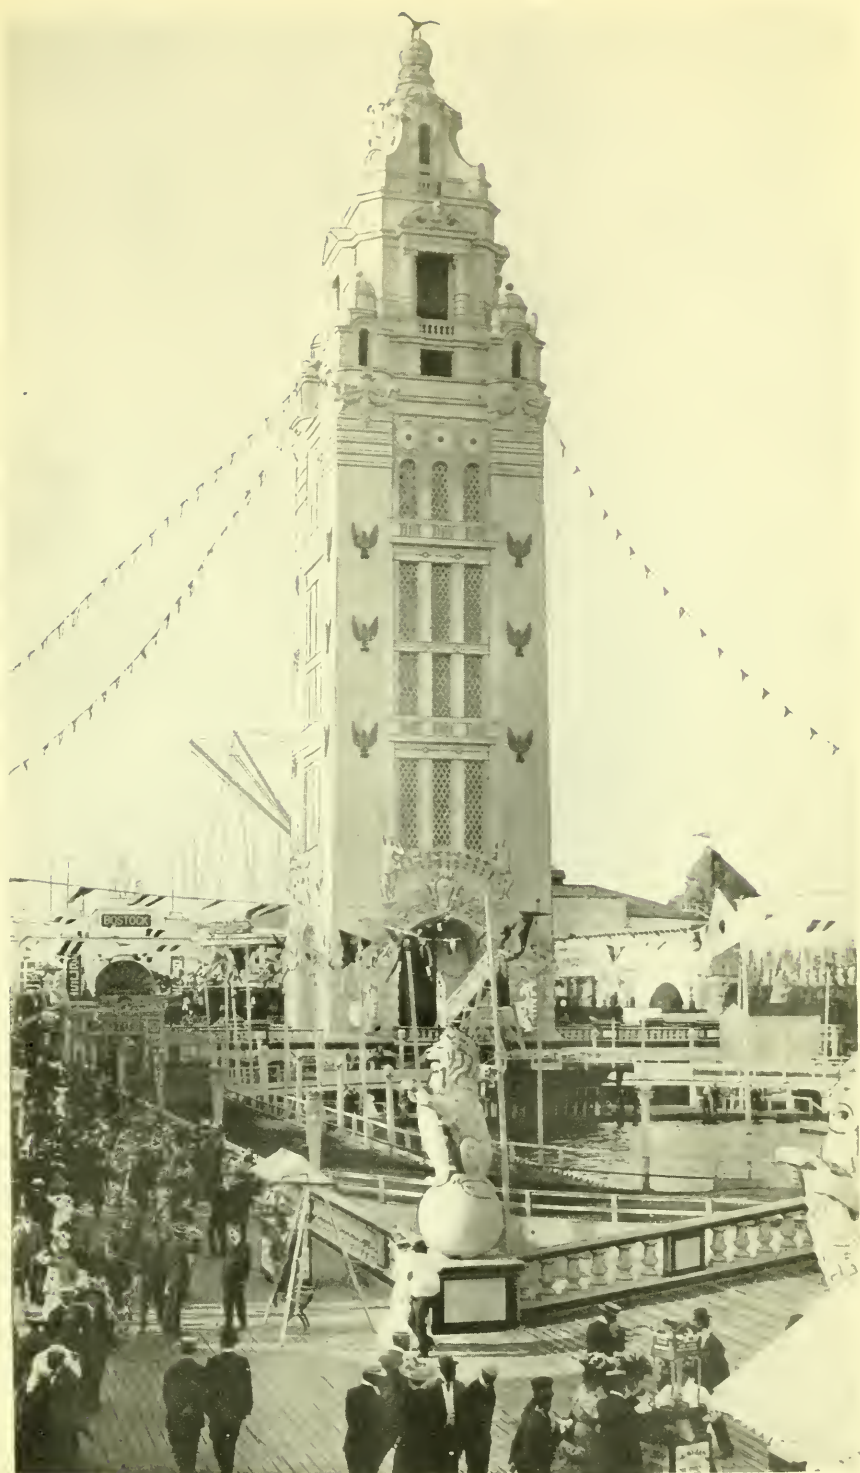

SURF AVENUE AND PUBLIC PARK

COPYRIGHT, 1908, BY CHARLES FRANCIS PRESS

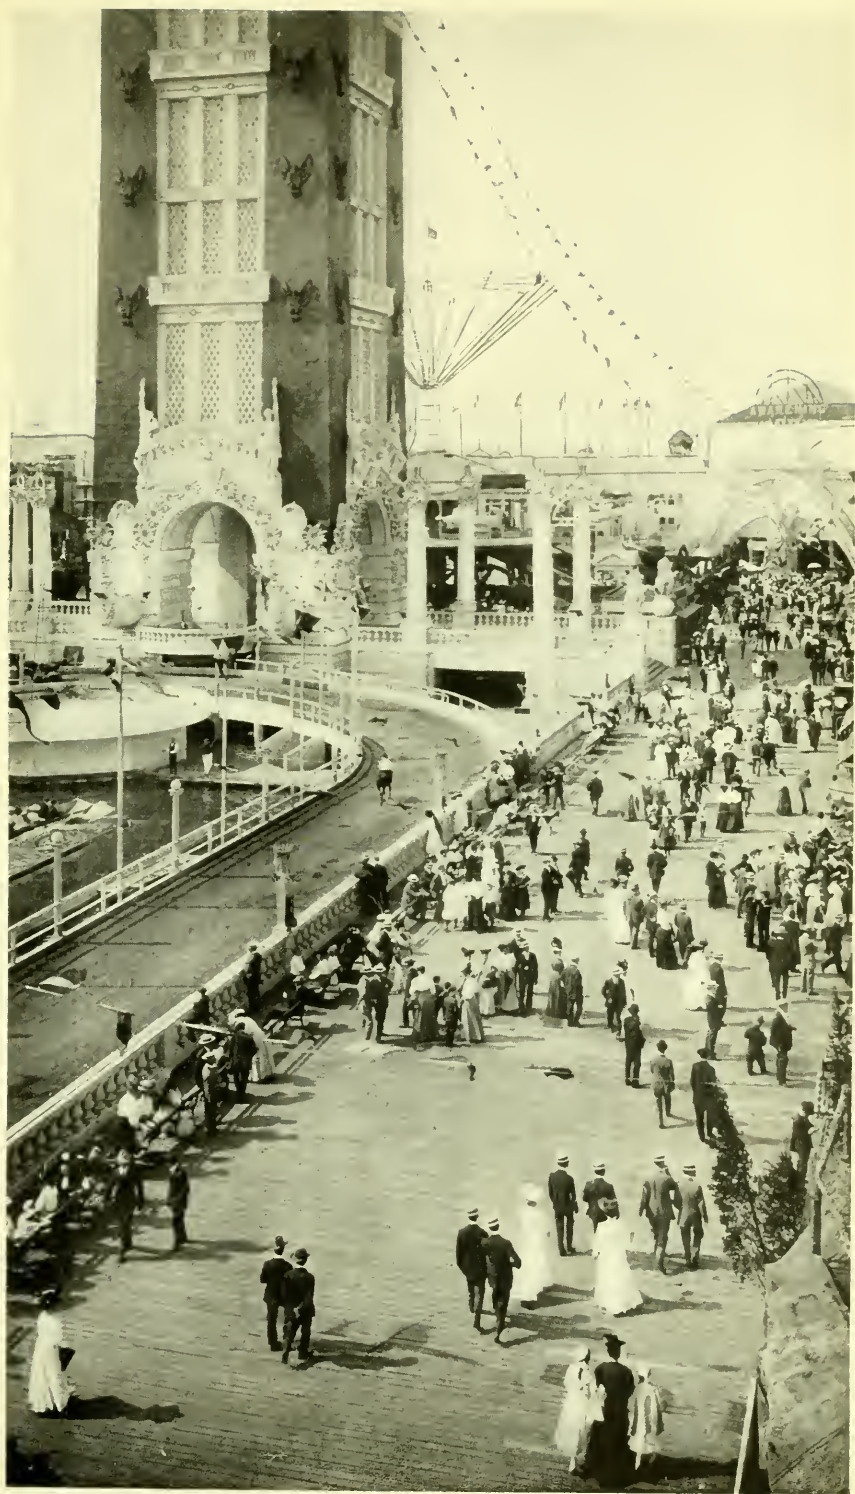

ALONG THE WALK IN DREAMLAND

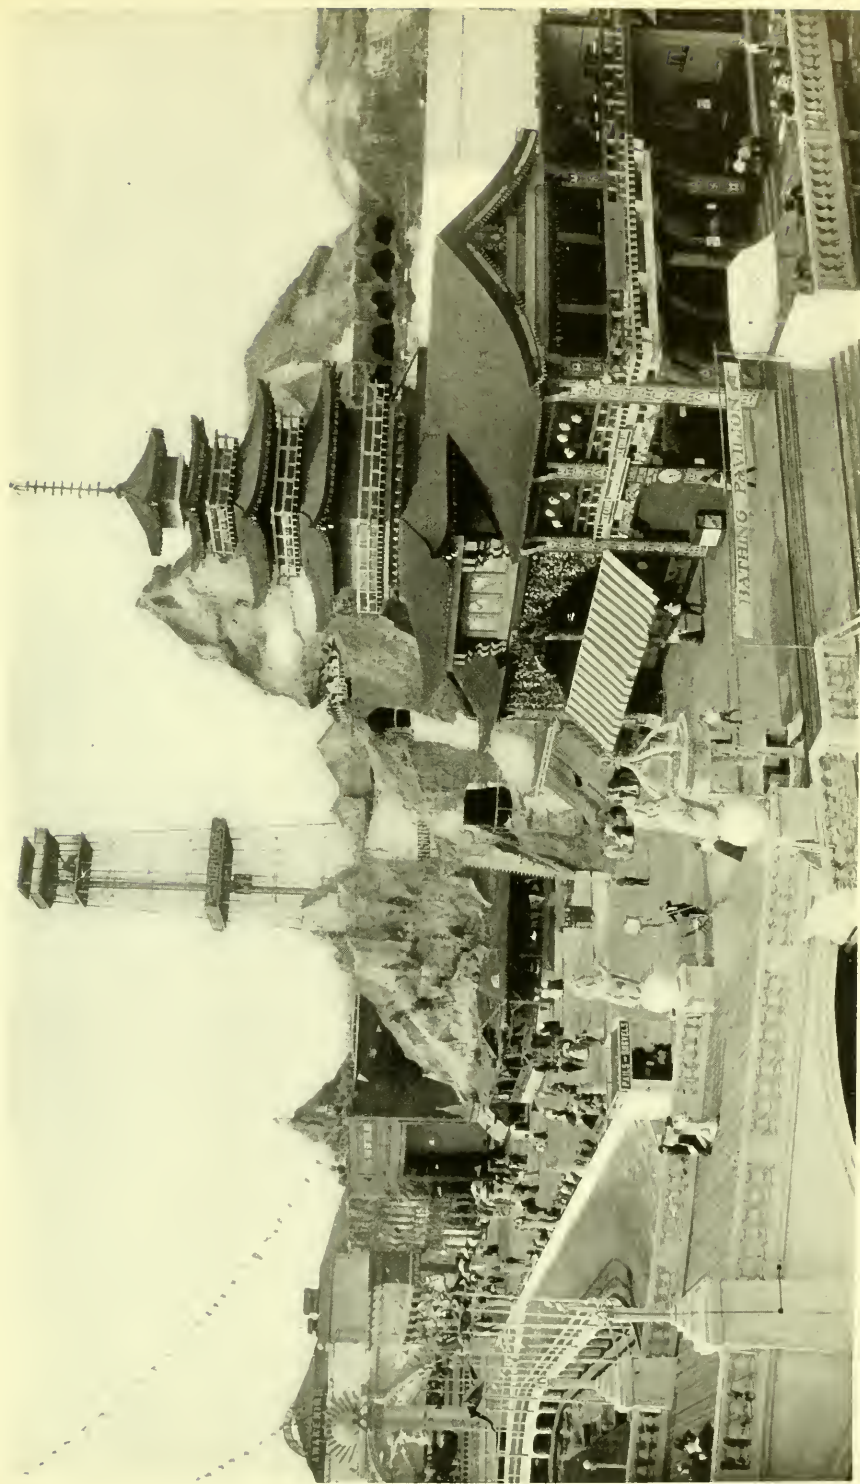

COPYRIGHT, 1908, BY CHARLES FRANCIS PRESS

DREAMLAND, LOOKING WEST

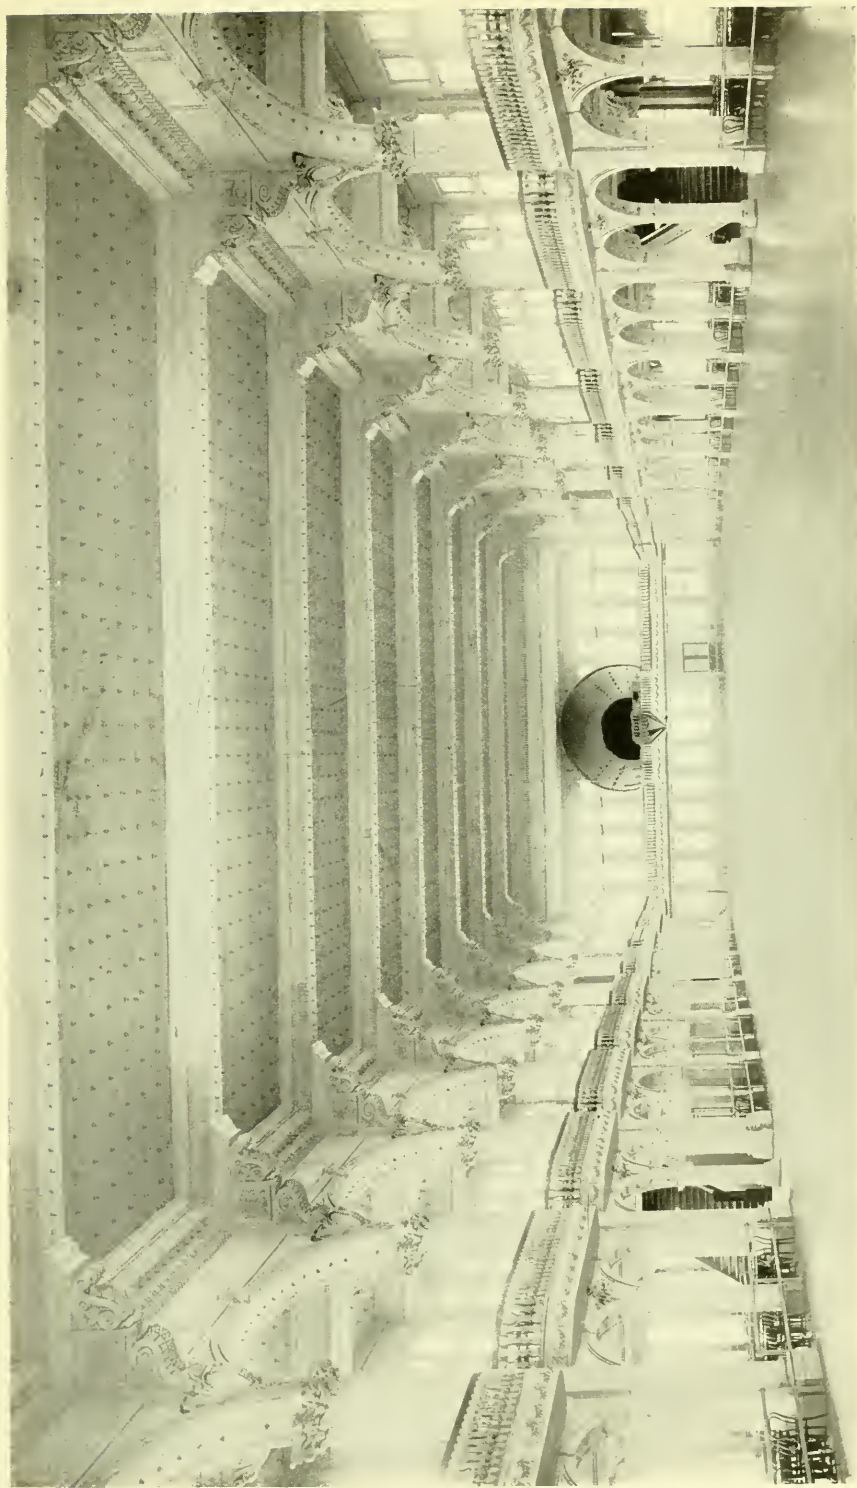

COPYRIGHT, 1908, BY CHARLES FRANCIS PRESS

THE EAST WALK, DREAMLAND

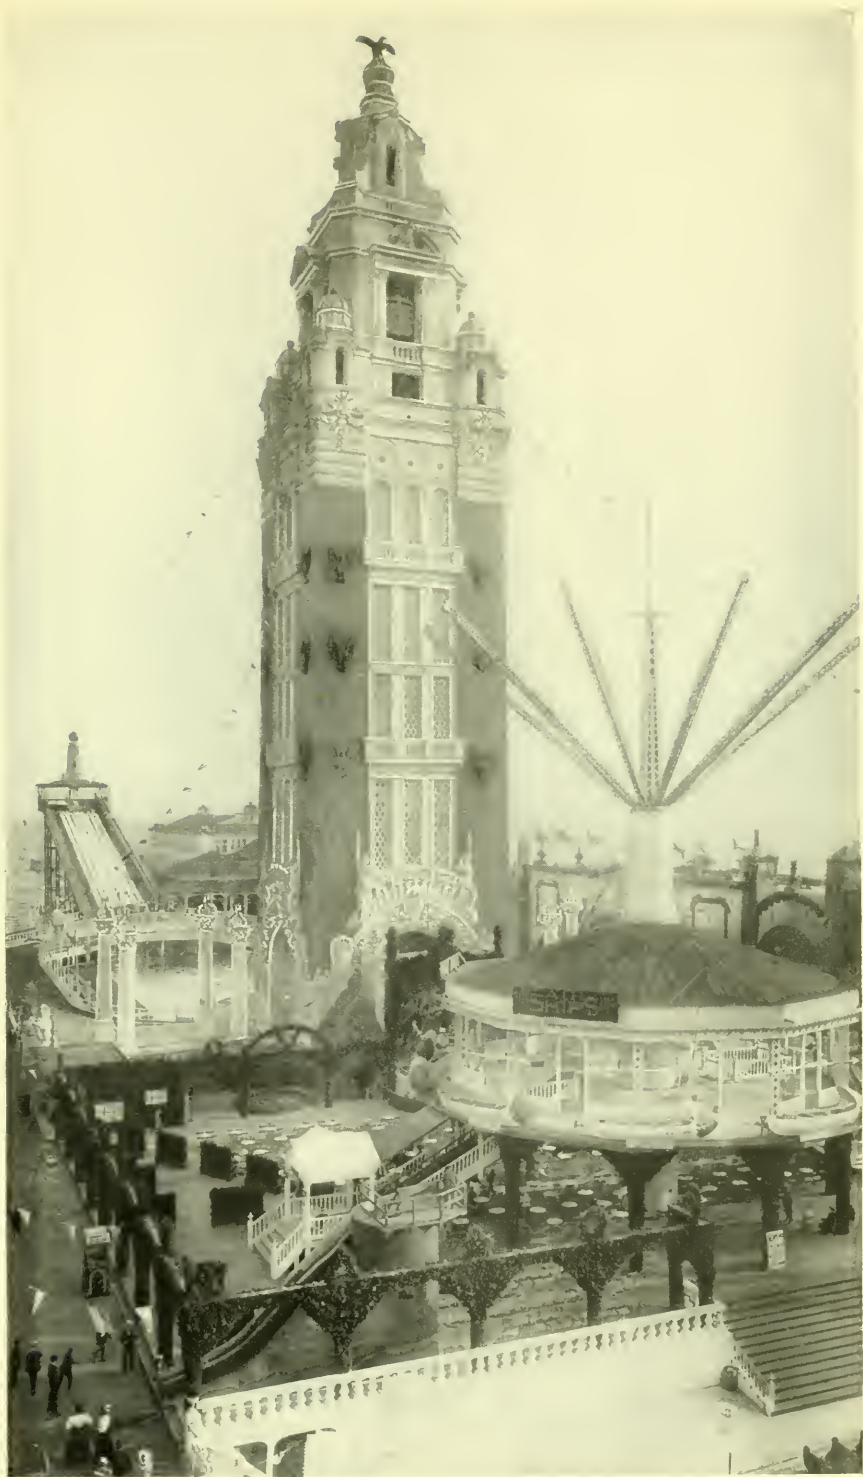

JAPANESE TEA GARDEN AND GREAT DIVIDE, DREAMLAND

COPYRIGHT, 1908, BY CHARLES FRANCIS PRESS

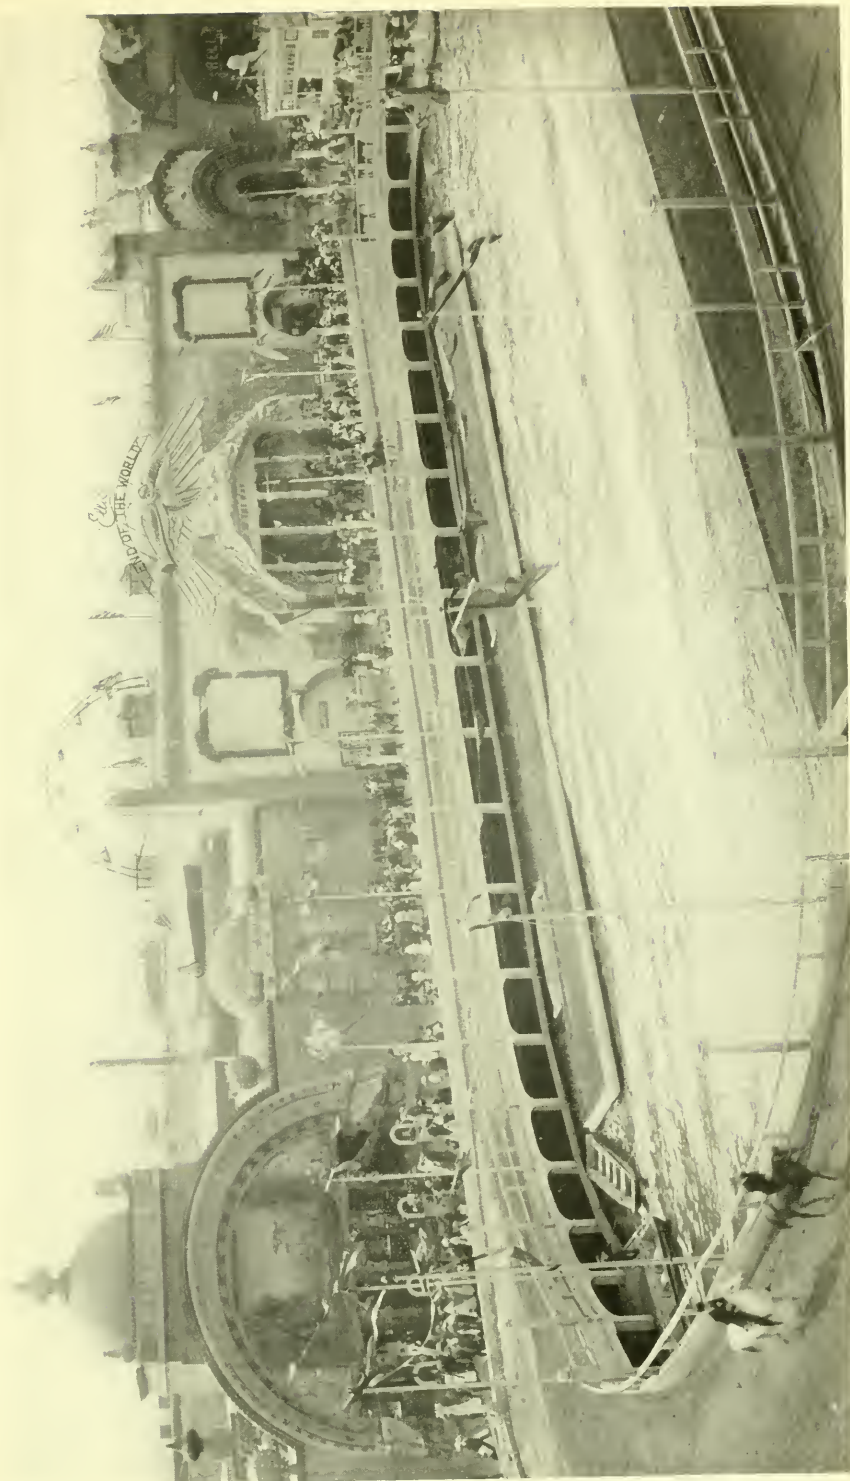

THE BALLROOM, DREAMLAND

COPYRIGHT, 1900, BY CHARLES FRANCIS PRESS

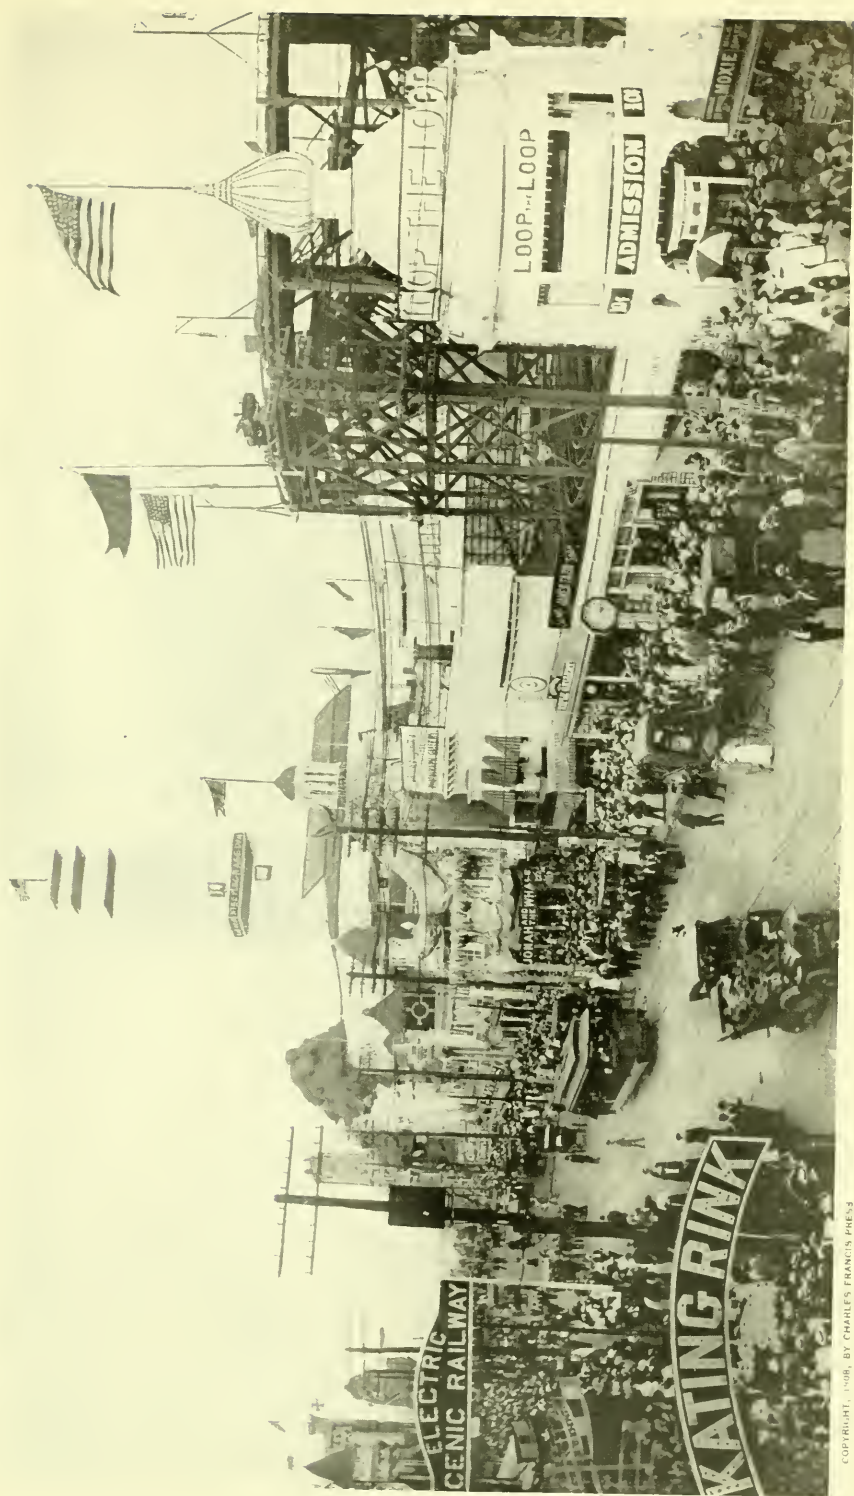

CC - RIGHT, 1908, BY CHARLES FRANCIS PRESS

DREAMLAND TOWER, SHOWING CHUTES AND AIRSHIPS

COPYRIGHT, 1908, BY CHARLES FRANCIS PRESS

THE WEST WALK AND HIPPODROME, DREAMLAND

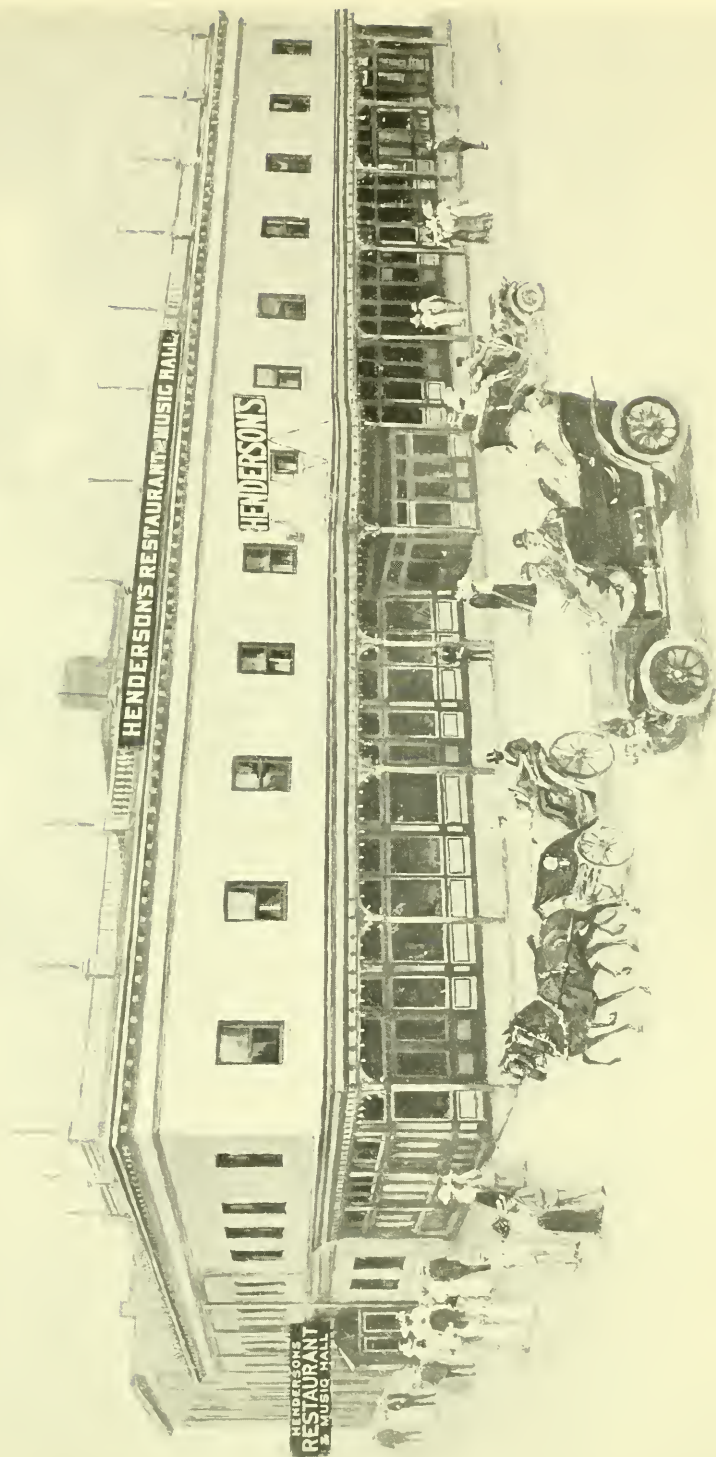

SURF AVENUE, CONEY ISLAND'S MAIN THOROUGHFARE

A CROWDED DAY ON THE BEACH

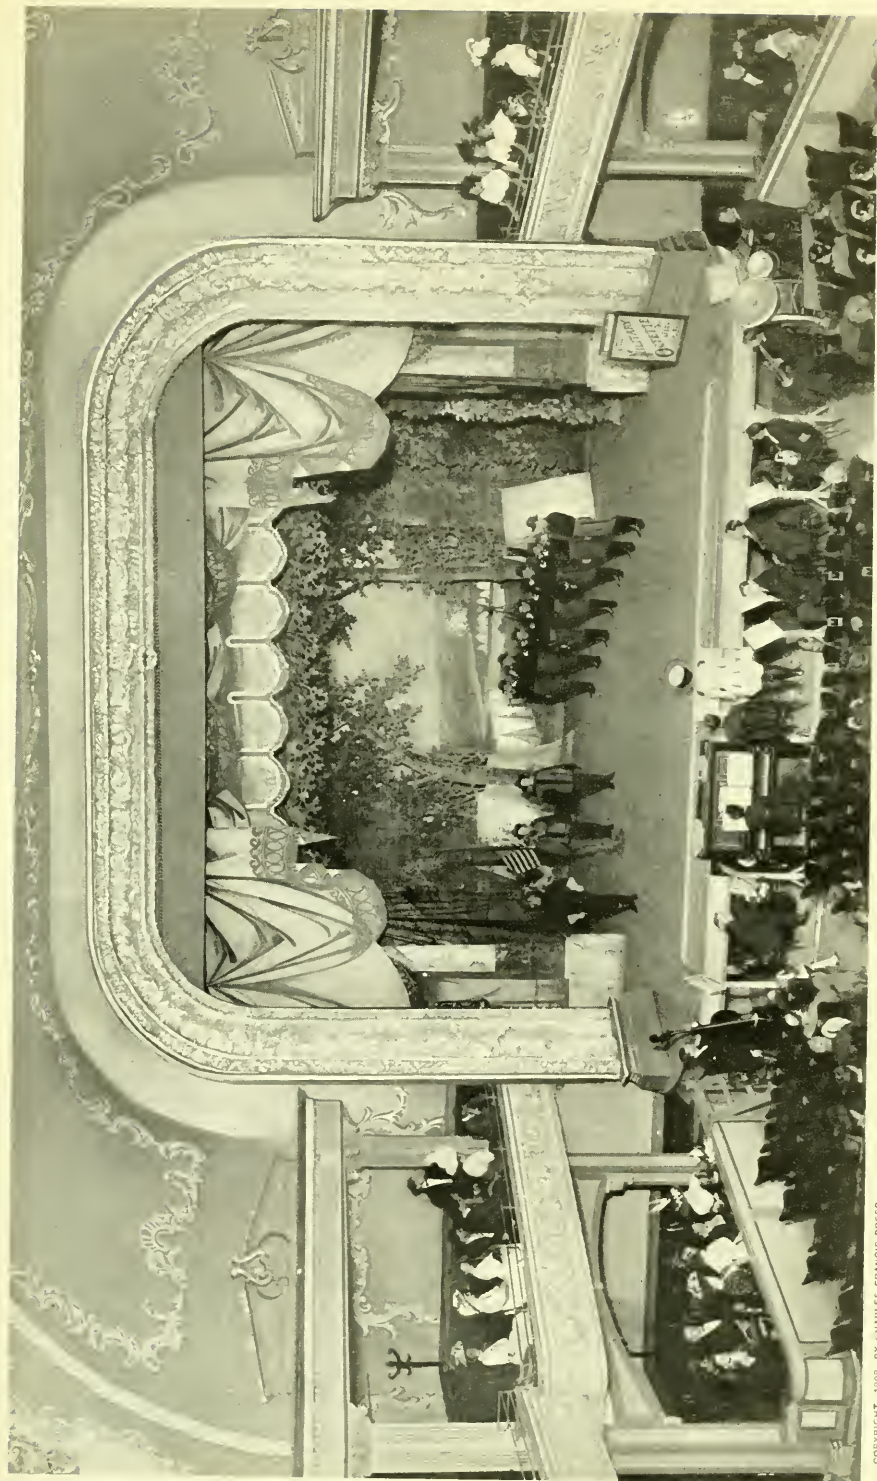

COPYRIGHT, 1909, BY CHARLES FRANCIS PRESS

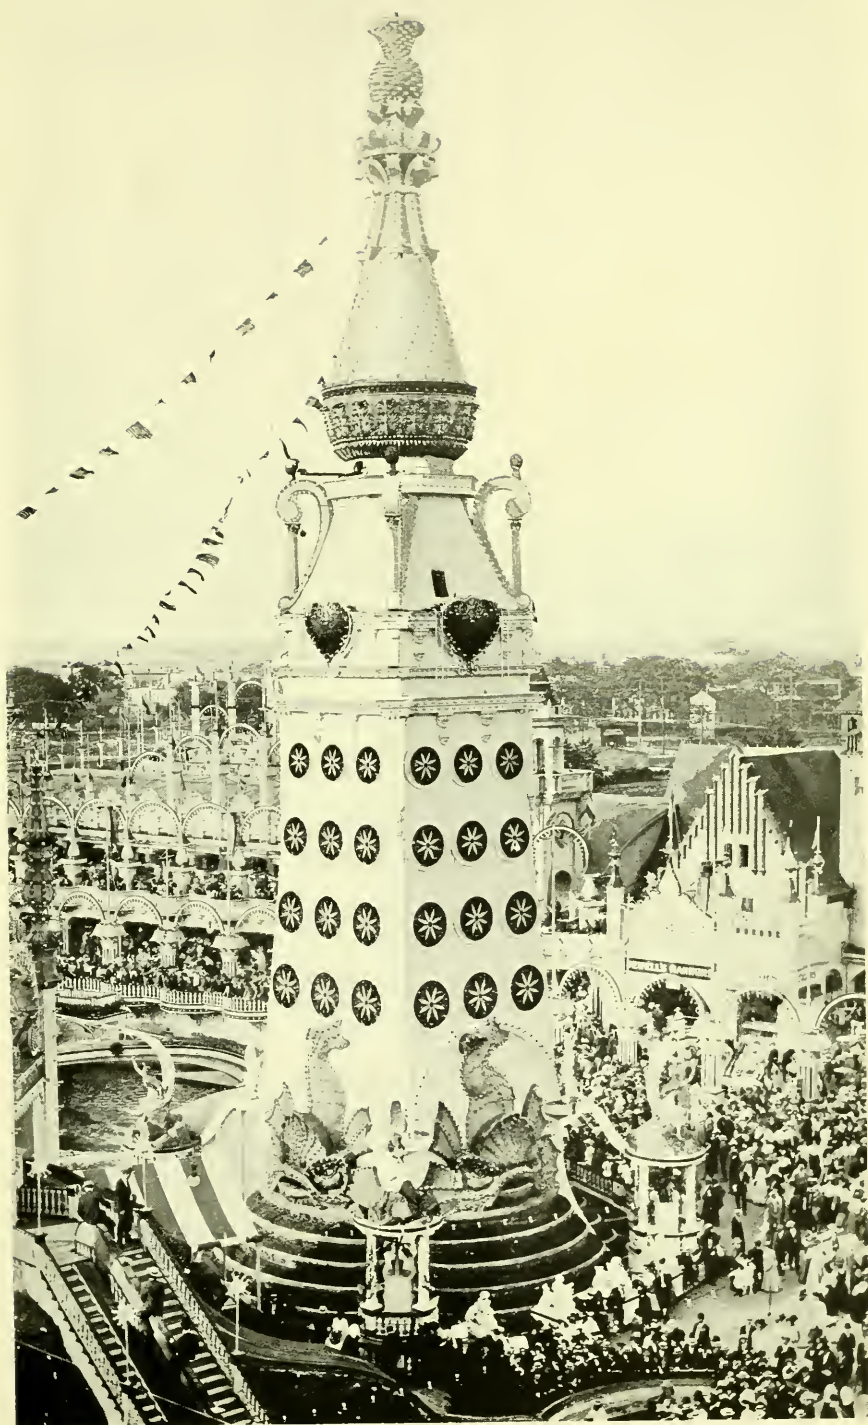

COPYRIGHT, 1908, BY CHARLES FRANCIS PRESS

INTERIOR OF HENDERSON'S RESTAURANT

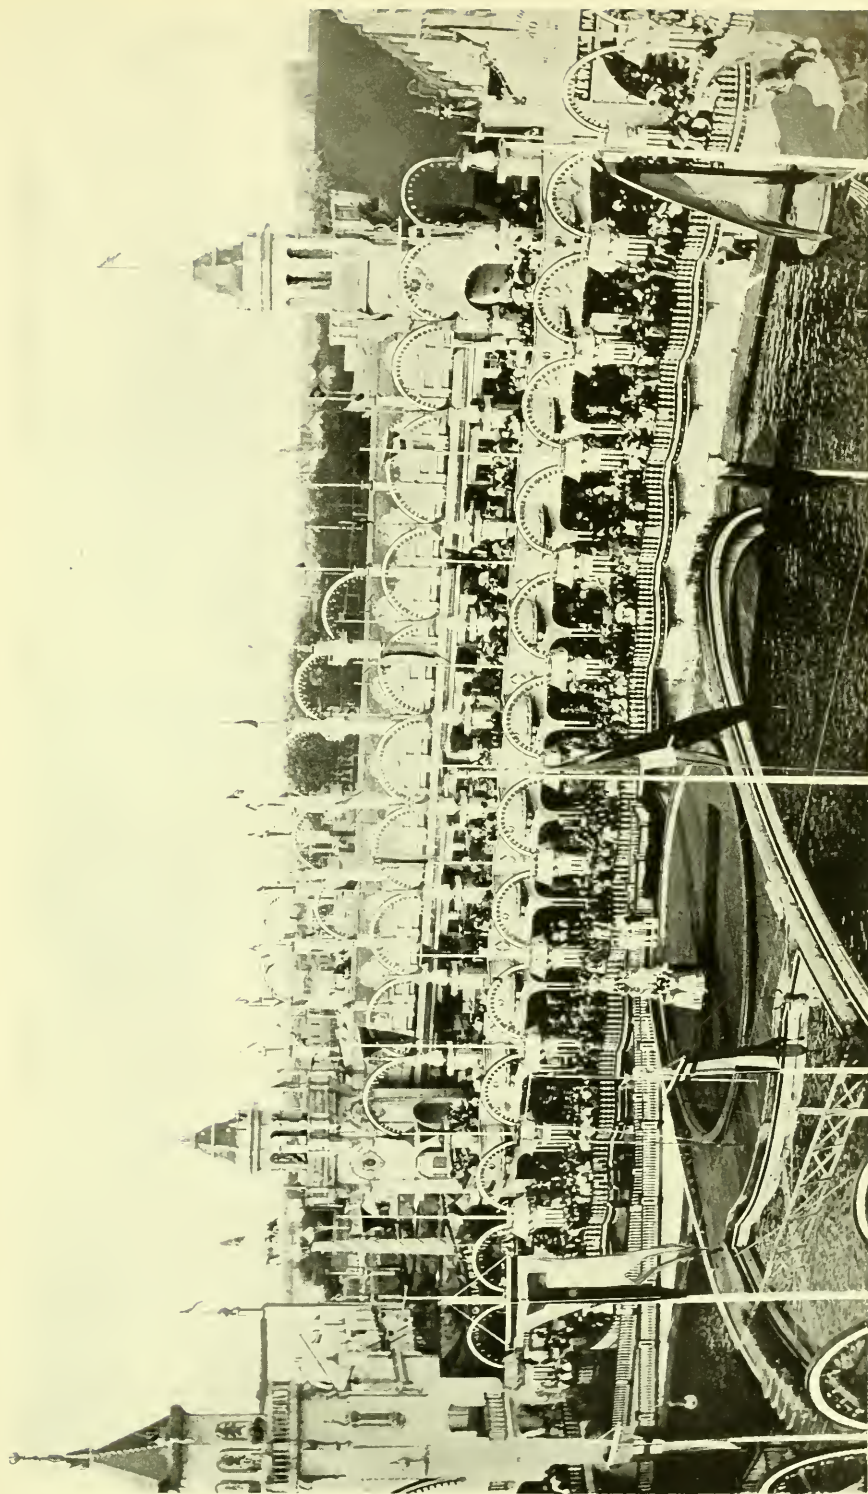

HENDERSON'S MUSIC HALL—THE STAGE—CONTINUOUS VAUDEVILLE

COPYRIGHT, 1908, BY CHARLES FRANCIS PRESS

COPYRIGHT, 1908, BY CHARLES FRANCIS PRESS

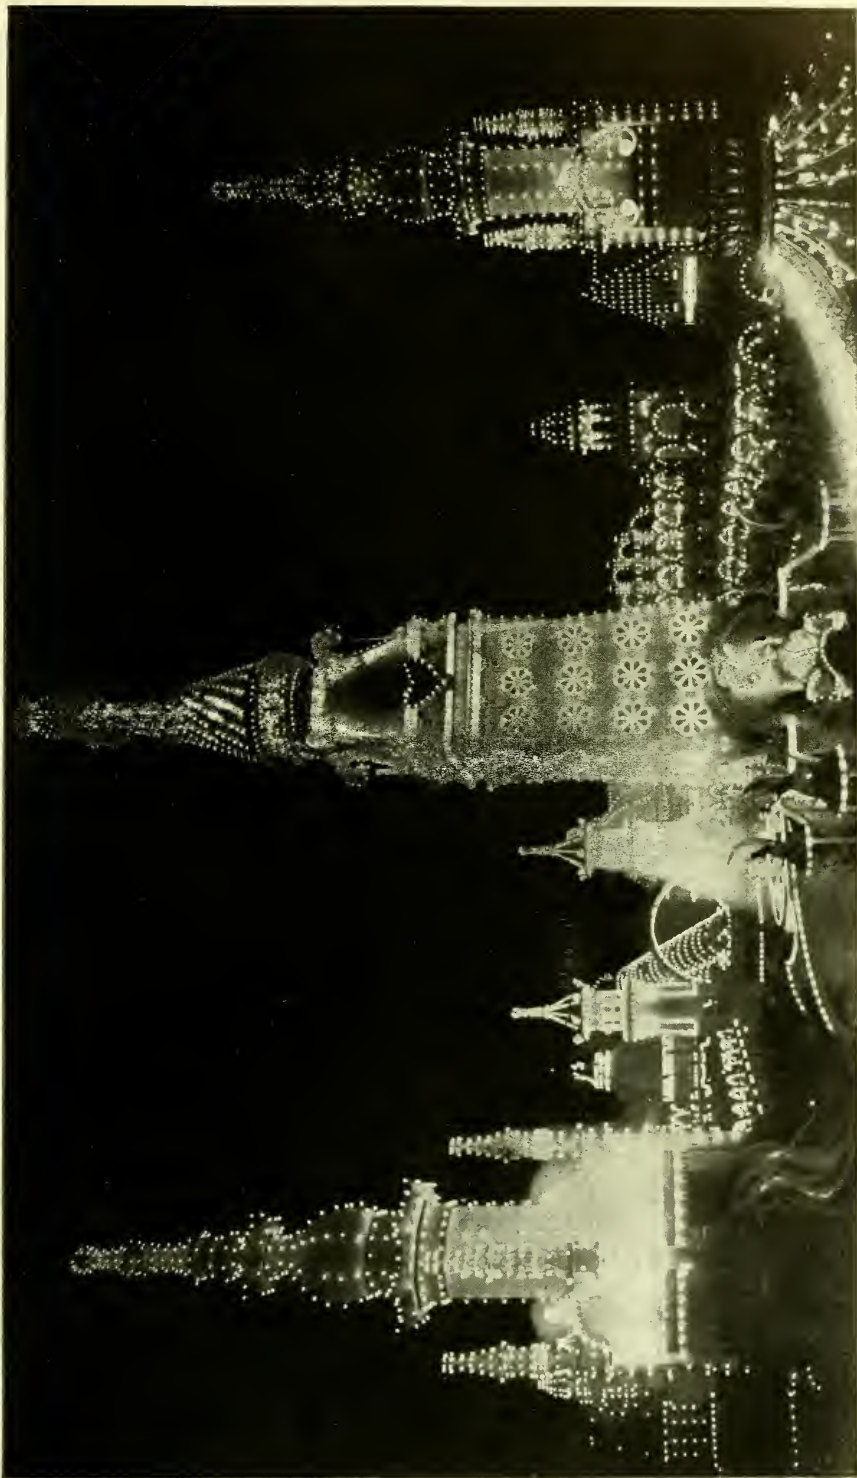

THE TOWER, LUNA PARK

VAUDEVILLE ON LUNA PARK BRIDGE

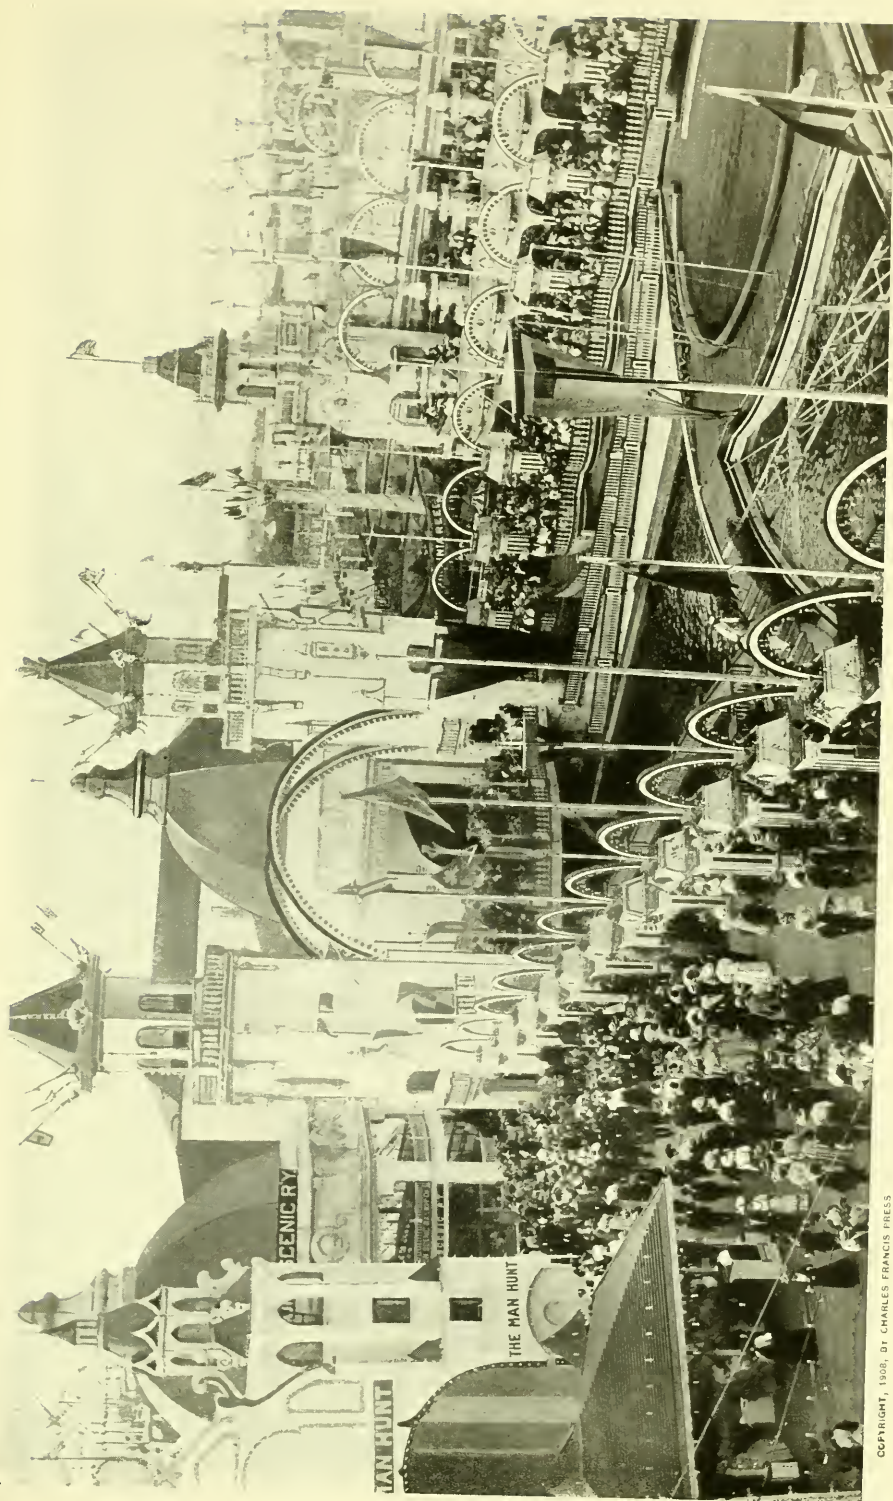

NIGHT VIEW OF COURT, LUNA PARK

THE TOWERS OF LUNA AT NIGHT

COPYRIGHT, 1908, BY CHARLES FRANCIS PRESS

A GLIMPSE OF LUNA PARK GAYETY

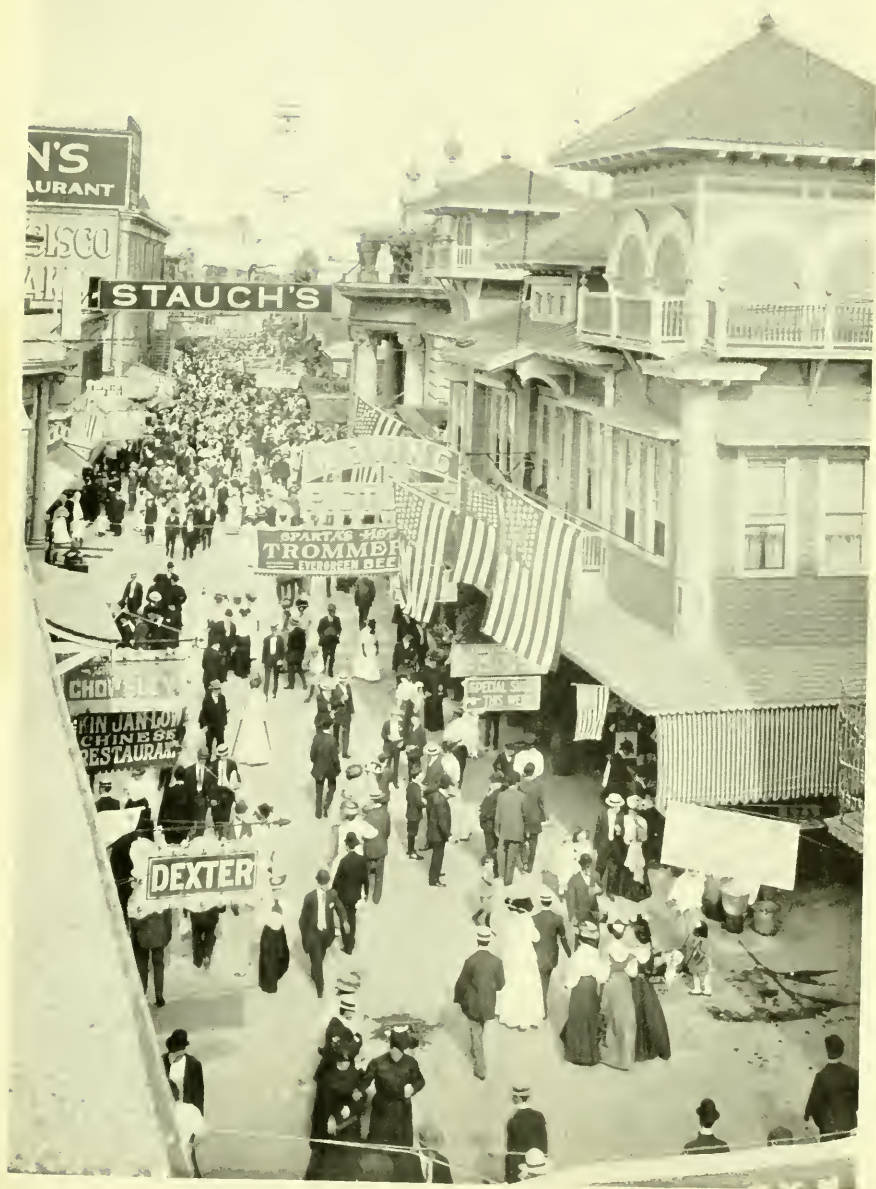

COPYRIGHT, 1908, BY CHARLES FRANCIS PRESS

MAIN TOWER, LUNA PARK

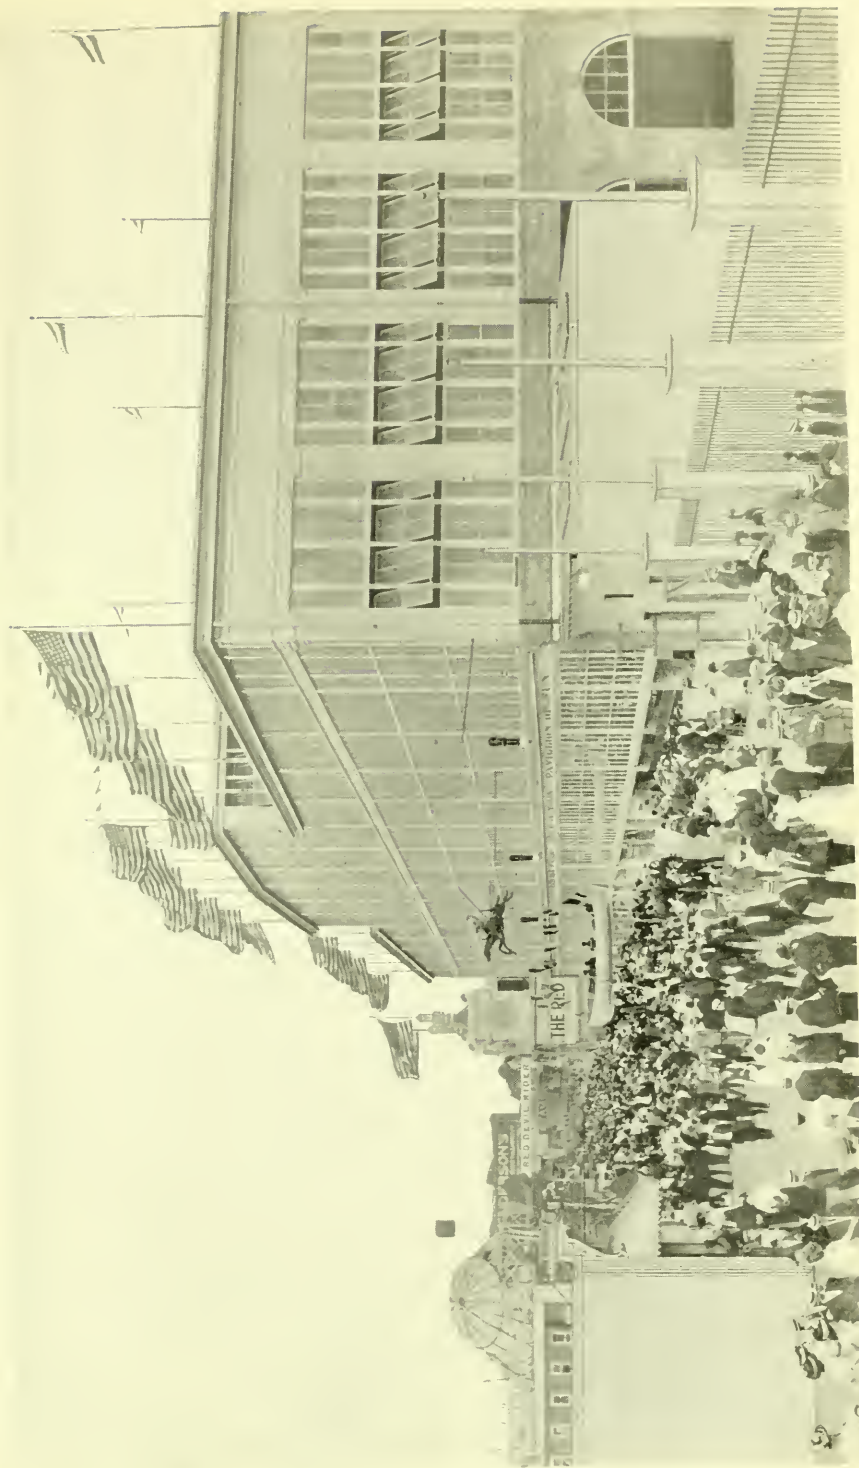

COPYRIGHT, 1908, BY CHARLES FRANCIS PRESS

ON THE BOWERY

THE BOWERY, LOOKING EAST

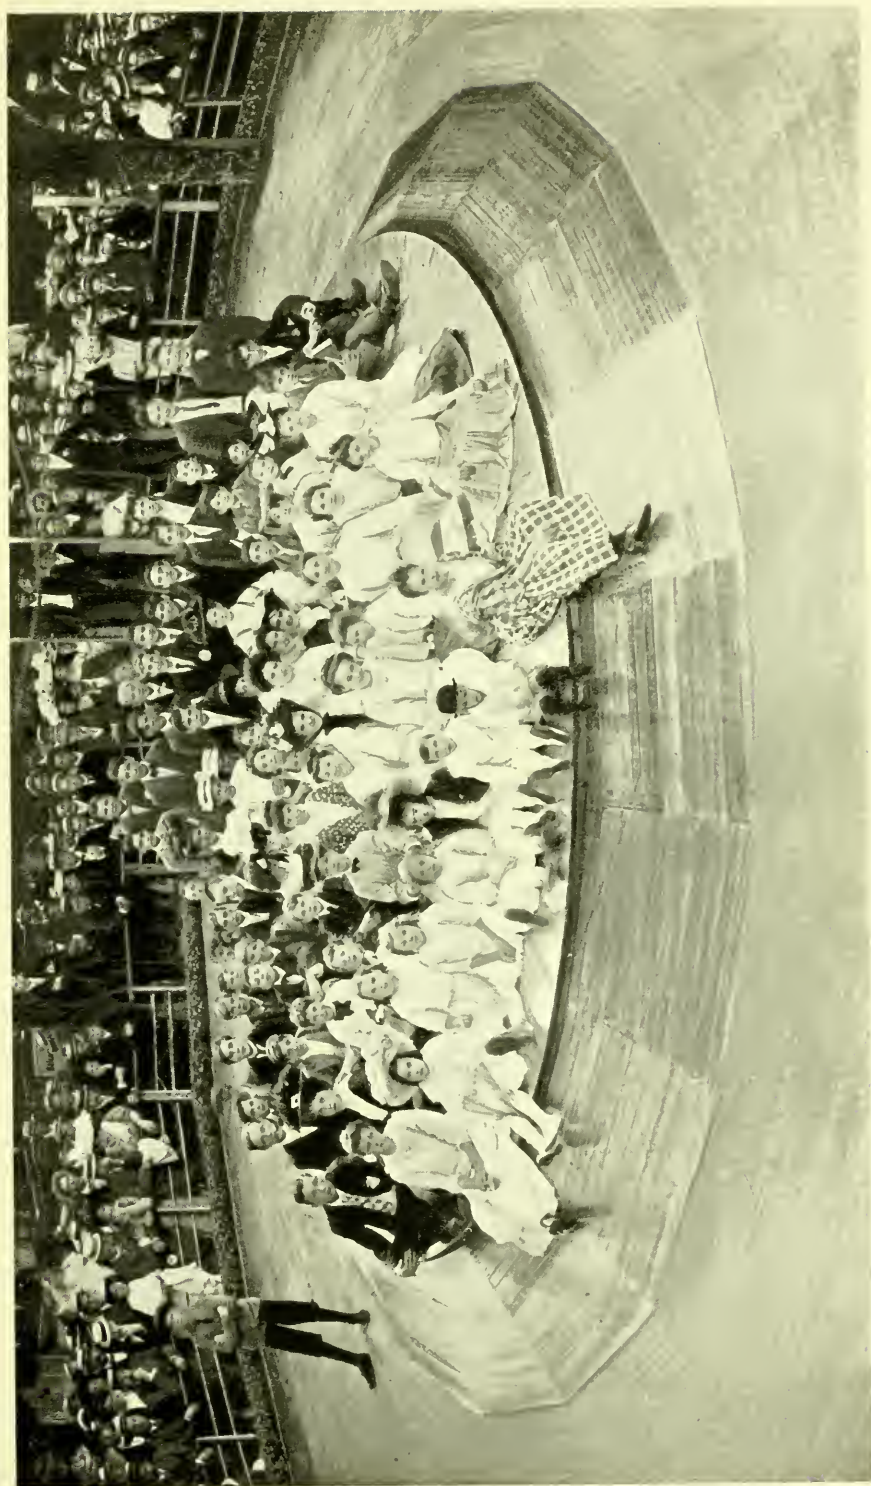

NEW STEEPLECHASE PARK AND BOWERY

COPYRIGHT, 1905, BY CHARLES FRANCIS PRESS

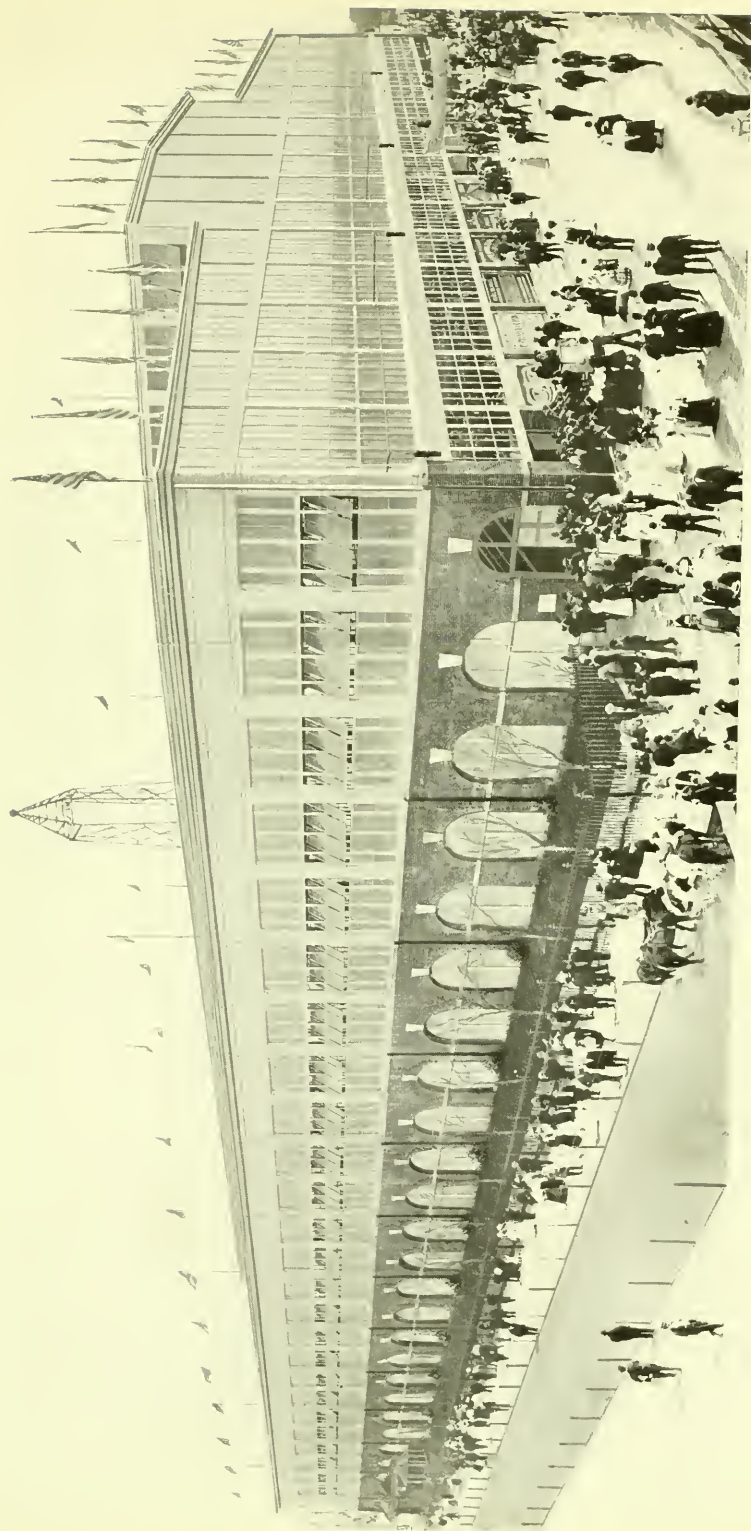

COPYRIGHT, 1908, BY CHARLES FRANCIS PRESS

THE SUNKEN GARDEN, NEW STEEPLCHASE PARK

COPYRIGHT, 1908, BY CHARLES FRANCIS PRESS

HUMAN ROULETTE WHEEL, NEW STEEPLCHASE PARK

PAVILION OF FUN, NEW STEEPLCHASE PARK

STEEPLECHASE PIER, SHOWING THE WRECKED "SARANAC" IN THE FOREGROUND

THE BALLROOM, STEEPLCHASE PARK, DESTROYED BY FIRE, 1907

A HAPPY THROUNG—PARKWAY BATHS, BRIGHTON BEACH

COPYRIGHT, 1908, BY CHARLES FRANCIS PRESS

BEACH VIEW, SHOWING LARGEST BATH HOUSE, BRIGHTON

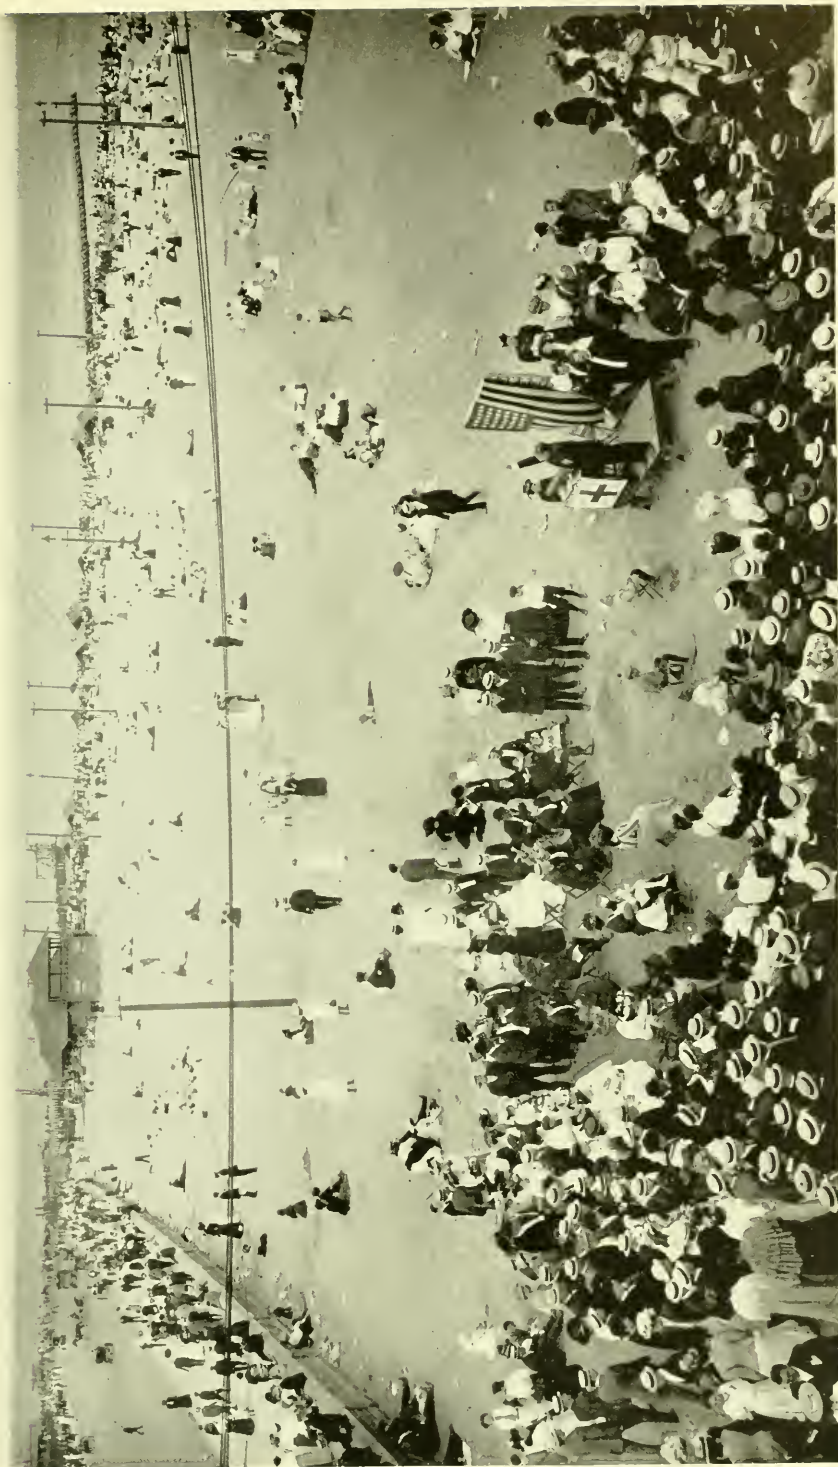

COPYRIGHT, 1906, BY CHARLES FRANCIS PRESS

BRIGHTON BEACH BOARD WALK, LOOKING EAST FROM PARKWAY BATHS

THE CROWD ON THE BATHING BEACH, PARKWAY BATHS

COPYRIGHT, 1908, BY CHARLES FRANCIS PRESS

THE COMMONS AND BEACH

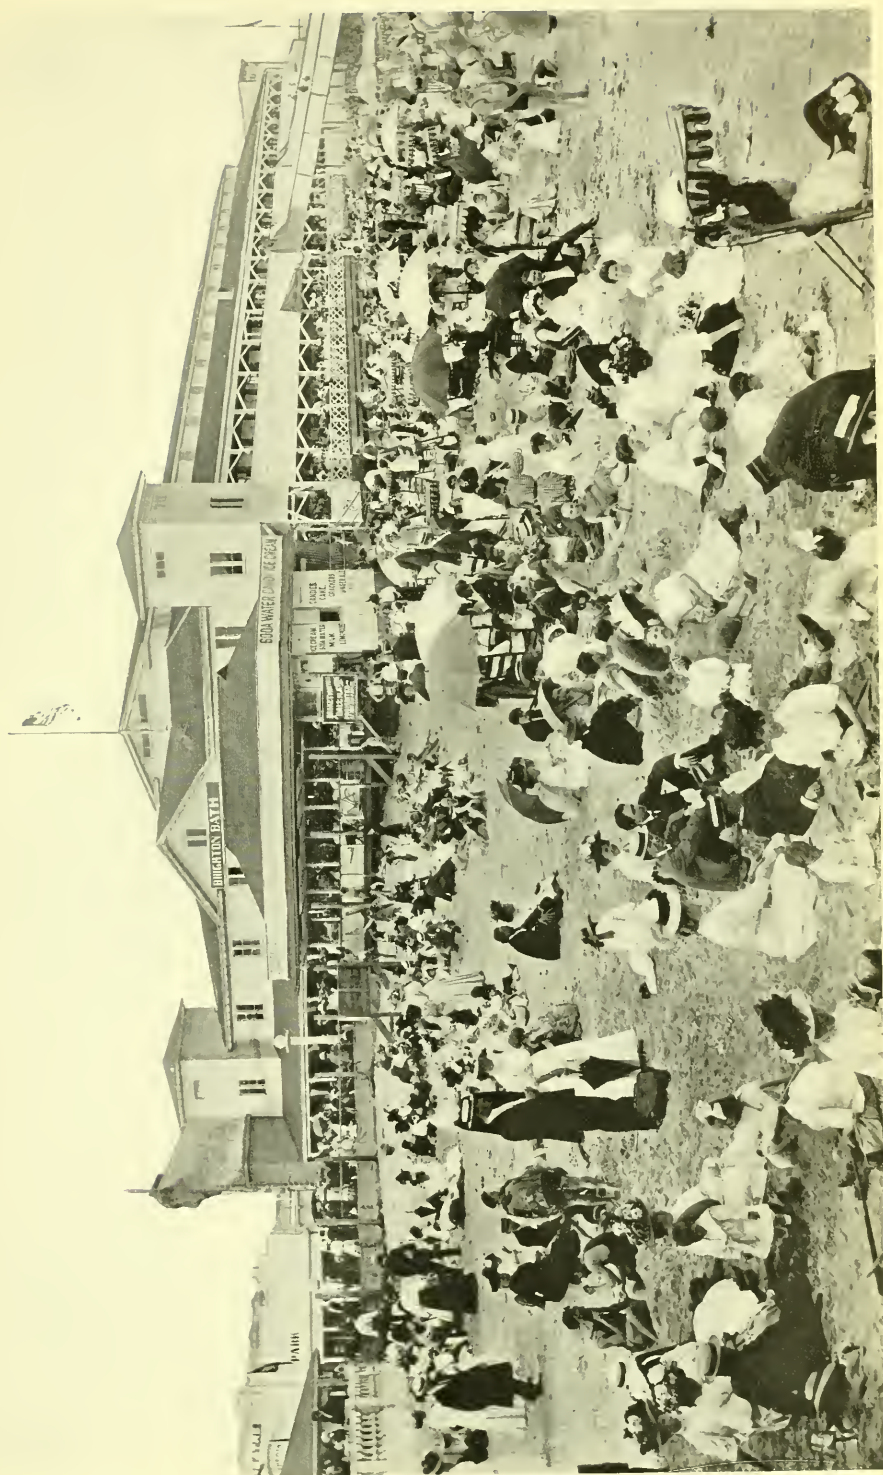

COPYRIGHT, 1909, BY CHARLES FRANCIS PRESS

LORVRIGHT, 1908, BY CHARLES FRANCIS PRESS

BRIGHTON BEACH HOTEL AND BOARDWALK

CC-BY-RIGHT, 1906, BY CHARLES FRANCIS PRESS

IN THE SURF, BRIGHTON

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup

is the friend to
MOTHER and BABY

Betty Zane

HEROINE

OUT of that wonderful past which marked the settlement of the middle west, conquered the wilderness, overcame the Indian and bred the spirit that achieved American independence comes the story of "Betty Zane." No mere story-book heroine she, but a real flesh-and-blood woman who lived and loved and proved her womanliness and bravery in the days when danger lurked everywhere along the frontier and true love never lacked the chance to prove its worth by thrilling deeds. No one can read this book and not live again the life of those bold pioneers and adventurers who carved a nation out of the wilderness and of the brave women who stood by their sides, rifles in hand, to repel the treacherous red foe, women who could ride and run and shoot as well as their brothers, and whose lives were passed in the very midst of romantic adventure. "Betty Zane" is a fascinating story, vivid because true. In Betty's race for life, with the bullets flying about her, we hold our breath as though we were actually watching the brave and devoted girl with the lives of a whole community depending on her speed and daring.

ASK THE BOOKSELLER.

Price, $1.50

If "Betty Zane" is not on his shelves drop a line to
CHARLES FRANCIS PRESS, Publishers

30-32 West 13th Street

New York

AUG 6 1908

HENDERSON'S, CONEY ISLAND

LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

0 014 222 365 A

